Dear Dr Böhnecke,

You will presumably have received the report of the meeting of a Working Group on Coordination of Operating Plans for the North-Western Indian Ocean which was held at the National Institute of Oceanography, 9 to 11 July 1962. In this report you will note that on page 4 the following reference stations were recommended for the North-Western Indian Ocean:

Lat°	Long°
24°N	60°E
20°N	65°E
13°N	50°E
12°N	63°E
10°N	74.5°E
7°N	52°E
0°	55°E
0°	80°E
8°S	44°E

I would inform you that the United Kingdom scientists are in agreement with these suggestions.

Yours sincerely,

Executive Secretary

Dr G. Böhnecke,
Scientific Committee on Oceanic Research,
Neuer Wall 34,
Hamburg 36,
Germany.
