ISC SPONSORED AND AFFILIATED INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC BODIES

ENGAGING IN GLOBAL POLICY PROCESSES

Representing science in major global policy processes, focusing on the post-2015 development agenda, including the:

- 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
- Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNDRR)
- Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission of UNESCO
- Paris Agreement on Climate Change (UNFCCC)
- New Urban Agenda (UN-Habitat)
- Convention on Biodiversity

SCIENCE AND SOCIETY IN TRANSITION

ISC ACTION PLAN: 2022–2024

THE ISC ACTION PLAN

The ISC works with its members, partners and sponsored initiatives on a set of targeted, priority projects, which are set out in regular multi-year Action Plans.

Our 2022-2024 Action Plan sets out an agenda for transformative action across five domains of impact:

- Global Sustainability
- Converging Science and Technology in a Digital Era
- Science in Policy and Public Discourse
- Changing Practices in Science and Science Systems
- Freedom and Responsibility in Science

The next slides reflect some of the issues we're actively working on – and thinking about – under each domain.

FLIPPING THE SCIENCE MODEL

Flipping the Science Model: A Roadmap to Science Missions for Sustainability

This report describes and advocates for mission science for sustainability as an urgently needed new form of science for the SDGs. It also serves as a call, inviting all stakeholders, both familiar and unconventional, to unite with the science community in this endeavour of collectively catalyzing science's power to drive transformative action towards a more sustainable world for all.

Published by the ISC's Global Commission on Science Missions for Sustainability, The report summarizes the conclusions reached after extensive consultation with experts, detailed in the accompanying TAG report "A model for implementing mission science for sustainability."
